

11/23/16 – RmediA

RmediA is a full service video production company located right on Main Street in Downtown Danbury. Their services encompass everything it takes to turn an idea into a professional video product.

Practically no idea is outside the scope of RmediA's reach. They serve individuals and businesses of all sizes and have produced work ranging from marketing & branding to music videos.

The company is owned and operated by Alicia Ghio, who is the writer and manager of organizing the "behind-the-scenes" action, and Renato Ghio, the cameraman and video editor.

RmediA has been in Danbury since 1999, but it was just a couple of years ago that Renato and Alicia decided to move their business to downtown Danbury and have become an enthusiastic voice for the burgeoning downtown community.

For people or businesses seeking an effective and reasonably priced high end video production, you don't have to look any further than RmediA.
