Appeals from Community groups:

Deepti Nagaraja, Visual Artist $10,000 Deepti Nagaraja Blossom and Blooms

An exhibit of 30 pieces of artwork and a workshop for youngsters and seniors. This grant would be a significant investment from the Cultural Commission to support a local, woman of color artist in advancing her career, including in her work to bring together a community of artists to contribute to the Danbury community.

Deepti has been an artist for 30 years. She works in Health Care and Finance. She would like to encourage art in Danbury.

HCenter: Have you approached the Library? DNagaraja: Yes but with limited success.

HCenter: Can you work with a smaller budget? DNagaraja: Yes.

JCooke: City Hall has artwork displayed.

Old Business

1. Naming a Poet Laureate for the City sent for the Mayor to review

The Mayor's office has no objection. The Commission will set up a seven-member, Danbury Poet Laureate Selection Committee which will include members of the Danbury Cultural Commission, Danbury Library staff, poetry advocates, representatives from the school and senior communities, and others. The Danbury Cultural Commission Coordinator will help coordinate the application process.

Applications will be accepted from July 15, 2023 through September 15, 2023

MOTION: by EMOore to proceed with naming a poet laureate per recommendations set up in February. Seconded by GSmith.

DISCUSSION: A number of Commissioners said they would be interested in serving. It was suggested that EMoor's father might be interested.

CALLED: Passed by unanimous voice vote.

2. JCooke notes that the brochure printed in color will cost about $60 for 75 copies. His recommendation is to produce them in black and white.
3. EMOore notes that outreach from the Commission should be available in multiple languages, most notably Spanish and Portuguese.

New Business

1. Invitation has been received for a Commissioner to address Henry Abbott Technical High School at their scholarship award June 9th. HCenter expressed an interest.
2. Coordinator requests permission to proceed with Jane Jacobs walk May 9, no budget required.

MOTION: by PPrice to approve the plans for an architectural walk to be conducted by GWencek.

Seconded by EMOore.

DISCUSSION: No funding is requested.

CALLED: Passed by unanimous voice vote.

Action on Grant Requests:

Deepti Nagaraja, Visual Artist $10,000

MOVED: by GSmith to grant $3,000 for the project. Seconded by EMOore.

DISCUSSION: Commissioners are delighted to have a visual artist applying for a grant as mostly performance arts are represented.

CALLED: Passed by unanimous voice vote.

Other Business

1. An important Zoom meeting with state legislative leaders to maintain Arts funding on March 30th at 4:00 PM. The Coordinator will send details.
2. Railway Museum partnership announced
