Estelle Zimmer called the meeting to order at 1:03PM.

Minutes of the November meeting were reviewed. It was noted that the commission voted not to meet in December as Estelle was going to be away this was not in the minutes and it was requested that it be added. Minutes were approved after addition noted.

Financial Report/Director of Elderly Services Report/Senior Center Coordinator

Report: Copies Attached. Susan noted that the Winter Fest was a huge success. Also there has been a change to the inclement weather policy, the senior center will be open as long as they have power during particular storms such as Hurricane Sandy.

Municipal Agent Report: Copies Attached.

Senior Center Activities Coordinator Report: Copies Attached.

New Business: Estelle would like to have speakers at the Commission meetings, for the February 12, 2013 meeting 2 Physical Therapists from the Main St. Rehabilitation Center of Danbury Hospital will speak.

Other topics/speakers that are going to be contacted are Julia Evan-Star of the CT Commission on Aging. An expert from the police department to discuss the best way to handle getting pulled over, what to say, do etc., and Peter Brandy from the Handy Dandy Handy Man ministries. Estelle also is going to look into information that she received on Senior Choice at Home.

Mary motioned to adjourn at 1:55PM. Neil seconded.

Respectfully submitted by:

Mary Mazzucco
