Minutes of last meeting were accepted as mailed.

1. Taste of Danbury, Andrea Gartner, thanked us for our past support and requested $3,000 for the Sept. 11-12 event on the Danbury Green. She gave a wrap-up of the events taking place: the well known Marshall Tucker Band will be the big attraction on both Saturday and Sunday. Local Battle of the Bands winners will be featured as well as children's amusements, crafts, booths by non-profits and of course food vendors and specialty food booths. They anticipate an even larger crowd this year (last year about 1500 attended over a two day period.).

2. Reports on DCC Sponsored Events: B. DaSilva reported that the WCSU production of "Merry Wives of Windsor" was excellent (and featured one of our own commissioners doing a great acting job). The Musicals at Richter productions were very good as were the Childrens Summer Theatre Camp productions, it was reported. Coordinator M. Siegel reported on the Indian Festival as being extremely colorful and very well attended with crafts and dancing, music and food enjoyed by all.

3. Action Taken: Taste of Danbury: H. Center moved we grant $1,350, G. Smith seconded and the motion which was passed

The next DCC meeting will take place on Mon., Oct. 27, 2010.
