Honorable Members of the City Council
City of Danbury

Dear Council Members:

I hereby submit for your confirmation the appointment and promotion of the following accomplished members of the Police Department to the position of Police Detective:

Police Officer Justin Williams – Officer Williams began his career with the Danbury Police Department on May 6, 2004. Prior to coming to the Danbury Police Department, Officer Williams served two years with the New Fairfield Police Department. Officer Williams has made valuable contributions to the department by serving as a Field Training Officer where he has been able to impart his knowledge and exceptional policing skills upon new officers. He has also gained valuable insight and experience towards the role of Detective by serving as a part-time Evidence Technician. As the recipient of the Exceptional Police Service award in 2008 and 2013; the Life Saving Medal in 2005; and the numerous letters of Appreciation and Commendation, Officer Williams has demonstrated his commitment, professionalism and desire to provide outstanding service to the department and public. Officer Williams has achieved the current rank of number one (1) on the Police Detective Eligibility List.

Police Officer Kevin Zaloski – Officer Zaloski began his career with the Danbury Police Department on December 2, 1997. Officer Zaloski has made valuable contributions to the Department through the many roles he has served. Such roles and activities include: Field Training Officer; primary VALE Domestic Violence Officer; member of the Community Conditions Unit; member of the ESU – SWAT Team; part-time Mobile Operations Center (MOC) Operator; and Recruitment Team Volunteer. As a true testament to his dedication, high standards in serving the public, and exceptional police work, Officer Zaloski has received many awards throughout his career as a Danbury Police Officer. He was recognized as the Danbury Rotary Club's Officer of the Year in April 2005 and received the Life Saving Award and Exceptional Police Service Award in 2008. Additionally, he received Meritorious Citations in 2003 and 2004 as well as several Unit Citations and letters of Appreciation and Commendation.

Officer Zaloski has achieved the current rank of number two (2) on the Police Detective Eligibility List.

It is quite evident that these highly qualified and skilled individuals will be a tremendous asset in their new roles to the Danbury Police Department and to the citizens of Danbury. I am proud and honored to submit their confirmation for promotion to the position of Police Detective.

Thank you for your consideration of these appointments.

Sincerely,

Mark D. Boughton
Mayor
