Community Policing Unit

With the implementation of Vision 2009 for the Danbury Police Department the School Resource Program command structure was recently changed effective April 7, 2008.

As of this date, Lt. John M. Browne assumed command and supervisory responsibility for the five school-based resource officers at the Danbury Police Department. The current structure of the program has not changed with two officers assigned to Danbury High School, one officer assigned to Rogers Park Middle School, one officer assigned to Broadview Middle School and one officer assigned to roam between various elementary schools.
