PAL held its annual Holiday Hoops Basketball Tournament with a three year record 48 teams participating. The tournament raised over $14,000 for PAL. Thanks to all the board members who assisted with the operation of the concession stand during this event.

The travel league is continuing with games on weekends.

The in house girls basketball program began on the 13th with 16 teams of girls grades 2nd through 9th participating and will run through March.

The Wellness on Wheels van completed its flu clinic schedule this month and is now only here on day a week for it's regular service to the community.

Immanuel Lutheran School is holding physical education classes at the youth center twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

PAL has its annual Fire Department inspection this week and had only a few, light outages to fix.

PAL purchased a new floor-cleaning machine and it makes the issue of floor maintenance and easy proposition.

Danbury Police held its citizen police academy training at the youth center this week.

The annual PAL raffle is in the final stages of preparation, and this year's prize will be 10 free rounds of golf for a foursome with carts at local golf courses. Tickets will be sold for $20 and the grand prize will be drawn in May at the Youth Center.
